Subject: Application for Admissions Officer Position

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Admissions Officeer Position at your hospital, as advertised in the Herald newspaper. As a recent graduate with a degree in Healthcare Administration, I am eager to contribute my skills and enthusiasm to your esteemed medical institution.

My academic background has provided me with a solid foundation in healthcare managemenet, patient relations, and medical record keeping. I am highly interested in this position because I understand that the Admissions Officer is the first point of contact for patients. I believe that providing a compassionate, efficient, and welcoming registration process is crucial to ensuring a positive patient experience.

I am confident that I am a good fit for this role because of my excellent communication skills, strong attention to detail, and ability to remain calm and organized under pressure. During my studies, I also gained hands-on experience handling administrative tasks and utilizing database system, which will allow me to adapt quickly to your hospital's registration procedures.

Thank you very much for taking the time review to application and consider my qualifications. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my background and skills align with the need of your hospital in an interview.

Sincerely,

Herly Herdiansyah Saputra
